

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : 1:19CR6131
v. :
JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN : PLEA AGREEMENT

NOW COME the United States of America, by and through Matthew G.T. Martin, United States Attorney for the Middle District of North Carolina, and the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, in his own person and through his attorney, A. Patrick Roberts, and state as follows:

1. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, is presently charged in a Bill of Information in case number 1:19CR 613-1, which charges him in Count One with a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2422(b), attempted enticement of a minor; and which in Count Two charges him with a violation Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A(a)(5)(B) and (b)(2), possession of child pornography.

2. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, will enter a voluntary plea of guilty to the Information herein. The nature of these charges and the elements of these charges, which must be proved by the United States beyond a reasonable doubt before the defendant can be found guilty thereof, have been explained to him by his attorney.

a. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, understands that as to Count One of the Information herein, he shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than ten years nor more than life, and the maximum fine for Count One of the Information herein is $250,000. If any person derived pecuniary gain from the offense, or if the offense resulted in pecuniary loss to a person other than the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, the defendant may, in the alternative, be fined not more than the greater of twice the gross gain or twice the gross loss unless the Court determines that imposition of a fine in this manner would unduly complicate or prolong the sentencing process. The fine provisions are subject to the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571, entitled Sentence of Fine.

b. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, understands that as to Count Two of the Information herein, he shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than ten years nor more than twenty years, and the maximum fine for Count Two of the Information herein is $250,000. If any person derived pecuniary gain from the offense, or if the offense resulted in pecuniary loss to a person other than the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, the defendant may, in the alternative, be fined not more than the greater of twice the gross gain or twice the gross loss unless the Court determines that imposition of a fine in this manner would unduly complicate or prolong the sentencing process. The fine provisions are subject to the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571, entitled Sentence of Fine.

c. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, also understands that as to Counts One and Two of the Information herein, the Court must include as a part of the sentence a requirement that the defendant be placed on a term of supervised release of any term of years not less than five, or life, after imprisonment, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583(k).

d. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, further understands that the sentence to be imposed upon him is within the discretion of the sentencing Court subject to the statutory maximum and mandatory minimum penalties set forth above. The sentencing Court is not bound by the sentencing range prescribed by the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Nevertheless, the sentencing Court is required to consult the Guidelines and take them into account when sentencing. In so doing, the sentencing Court will first calculate, after making the appropriate findings of fact, the sentencing range prescribed by the Guidelines, and then will consider that range as well as other relevant factors set forth in the Guidelines and those factors set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a) before imposing the sentence.

e. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, also understands that the Court is required to impose a Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act (“JVTA”) special assessment of $5,000 on each count of conviction, unless the Court finds the defendant to be indigent, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3014.

f. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, also understands that the Court shall order, in addition to any other criminal penalty authorized by law, that the defendant make restitution, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2259, to any victim of the offenses charged in the Information.

g. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, understands that if he is not a citizen of the United States that entering a plea of guilty may have adverse consequences with respect to his immigration status. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, nevertheless wishes to enter a voluntary plea of guilty regardless of any immigration consequences his guilty plea might entail, even if such consequence might include automatic removal and possibly permanent exclusion from the United States. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, further understands that in the event he is a naturalized citizen, entering a plea of guilty may result in denaturalization proceedings being instituted against him leading to his removal and possible permanent exclusion from the United States.

h. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, understands that by entering a plea of guilty he will be required to register as a sex offender under the laws of the United States and any state in which he resides, works, and or attends school, and that it is the defendant's responsibility to comply with any applicable registration requirements. See for example 34 U.S.C. § 20901-20962 and N.C.G.S. §§ 14-208.5 - 208.45.

3. By voluntarily pleading guilty to the Information herein, the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, knowingly waives and gives up his constitutional rights to plead not guilty, to compel the United States to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, not to be compelled to incriminate himself, to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against him, to have a jury or judge determine his guilt on the evidence presented, and other constitutional rights which attend a defendant on trial in a criminal case.

4. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, is going to plead guilty to the Information herein because he is, in fact, guilty and not because of any threats or promises.

5. The extent of the plea bargaining in this case is as follows:

a. It is understood that if the Court determines at the time of sentencing that the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, qualifies for a 2-point decrease in the offense level under Section 3E1.1(a) of the Sentencing Guidelines and that the offense level prior to the operation of Section 3E1.1(a) is 16 or greater, then the United States will recommend a decrease in the offense level by 1 additional level pursuant to Section 3E1.1(b) of the Sentencing Guidelines. This portion of the Plea Agreement is made pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

b. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, hereby abandons interest in, and consents to the official use, destruction, or other disposition of each item seized and/or maintained by any law enforcement agency during the course of the investigation, unless such item is specifically provided for in another section of this plea agreement. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, waives any and all notice of any proceeding to implement the official use, destruction, or other disposition of such items.

c. It is further agreed by and between the United States and the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, that in exchange for the government's agreement to not file charges against the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, for violations of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2251(a) and (e), attempted production of child pornography, the defendant expressly waives the right to appeal the conviction and whatever sentence is imposed on any ground, including any appeal right conferred by Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742(a), and further to waive any right to contest the conviction or the sentence in any post-conviction proceeding, including any proceeding under Title 28, United States Code, Section 2255, excepting the defendant's right to appeal or collaterally attack based upon grounds of (1) ineffective assistance of counsel, (2) prosecutorial misconduct not known to the defendant at the time of the defendant's guilty plea, (3) a sentence in excess of the statutory maximum, and (4) a sentence based on an unconstitutional factor, such as race, religion, national origin or gender.

6. With regard to forfeiture, the United States and the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, agree as follows:

a. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, knowingly and voluntarily consents and agrees to forfeit to the United States all right, title, and interest in and to any and all visual depictions described in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252A, and any and all property, real or personal, used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of the offense to which he is pleading guilty. The property to be forfeited includes, but is not limited to, the following item obtained from the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, on or about October 31, 2017:

- a. One iPhone 6S.

The defendant acknowledges that his interest in the foregoing property is subject to forfeiture based on the offense to which he is pleading guilty.

b. The defendant further agrees to waive all interest in any such asset in any administrative or judicial forfeiture proceeding, whether criminal or civil, state or federal. The defendant agrees to consent to the entry of orders of forfeiture for such property and waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2 and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Defendant acknowledges that he understands that the forfeiture of assets is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the court to advise him of this, pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J), at the time his guilty plea is accepted.

c. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to a jury trial on the forfeiture of assets. The defendant further knowingly and voluntarily waives all constitutional, legal and equitable claims, defenses and challenges to the forfeiture of assets in any proceeding, administrative, criminal or civil, any jeopardy defense or claim of double jeopardy, and any claim or defense under the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

d. The defendant agrees that the forfeiture provisions of this plea agreement are intended to, and will, survive him, notwithstanding the abatement of any underlying criminal conviction after the execution of this agreement. The forfeitability of any particular property pursuant to this agreement shall be determined as if the defendant had survived, and that determination shall be binding upon the defendant's heirs, successors and assigns until the agreed forfeiture, including any agreed money judgment amount, is collected in full.

e. The defendant agrees and understands that the abandonment, civil administrative forfeiture, civil judicial forfeiture, or criminal forfeiture of any property shall not be treated as satisfaction of any assessment, fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or any other penalty this Court may impose upon the defendant in addition to the forfeiture.

7. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, agrees that pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3613, all monetary penalties, including restitution imposed by the Court, shall be due immediately upon judgment and subject to immediate enforcement by the United States. The defendant agrees that if the Court imposes a schedule of payments, the schedule of payments shall be merely a schedule of minimum payments and shall not be a limitation on the methods available to the United States to enforce the judgment.

8. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, agrees that his debt resulting from the criminal monetary penalties due under the criminal judgment will be submitted to the Treasury Offset Program even if he is current in his payments under any Court imposed payment schedule.

9. It is further understood that the United States and the defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, reserve the right to bring to the Court's attention any facts deemed relevant for purposes of sentencing.

10. The defendant, JOSEPH DANIEL ORAN, further understands and agrees that pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013, for any offense committed on or after October 11, 1996, the defendant shall pay an assessment to the Court of $100 for each offense to which he is pleading guilty. This payment shall be made at the time of sentencing by cash or money order made payable to the Clerk of the United States District Court. If the defendant is indigent and cannot make the special assessment payment at the time of sentencing, then the defendant agrees to participate in the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program for purposes of paying such special assessment.

11. No agreements, representations, or understandings have been made between the parties in this case other than those which are explicitly set forth in this Plea Agreement, and none will be entered into unless executed in writing and signed by all the parties.

This the 24th day of February 2020.
